STATEMENT OF FACTS

7. The Commission received information that on April 11, 2005, an Alabama resident met MENSORIDES in Birmingham, AL. MENSORIDES made an offer of investment to the Alabama resident. The Alabama investor agreed to purchase $100,000.00 of IMPERIAL stock during the meeting. The Alabama investor wrote a check for $50,000.00 dated May 9, 2005. The Alabama investor wrote a subsequent check for $50,000.00 dated October 13, 2005. Both checks were issued pursuant to a verbal agreement made in April 2005 for the purchase of IMPERIAL stock. The checks were made out to IMPERIAL and deposited into an IMPERIAL bank account. The Alabama investor received a promissory note with a "Conversion Right" for the investment. The Alabama investor received 125,000 shares of stock in IMPERIAL. The issued stock certificate was signed by DENCER and dated June 12, 2006.

8. In May 2006, IMPERIAL officially changed names to POLYMER. The Alabama investor insisted on receiving updated stock certificates reflecting the POLYMER name. In October 2006, the Alabama Investor received 245,000 shares of POLYMER stock in exchange for his 125,000 shares of IMPERIAL stock. The Alabama investor received two POLYMER stock certificates both signed by DENCER. In November 2006, the Alabama investor received a memorandum in reference to "Subscription Agreements and Stock Certificates". The memorandum was addressed from BURKHART, VP Internal Controls of POLYMER and gave the Alabama investor instructions on how to complete the transaction. The memorandum was attached to copies of subscription agreements and the Alabama investor's stock certificates for the reissue of stock from the conversion to POLYMER.

9. On October 9, 2007, SZONDY solicited the Alabama investor to purchase a put contract with POLYMER for $300,000.00. The Alabama investor received a stock certificate for 100,000 shares of POLYMER signed by DENCER. Terms of the put contract gave the Alabama investor an option of reselling the stock back to POLYMER after 90 days at $5.00 a share. The Alabama investor attempted to exercise the Put Contract on January 16, 2008, at which time POLYMER failed to honor it. When POLYMER failed to honor the Put Contract, SZONDY stated, to the Alabama investor, that POLYMER did not have sufficient funds to pay the contract.

10. In January 2008, subsequent to the failed exercise of the Put Contract, the Alabama investor was in frequent contact with SZONDY to determine the status of the transaction. SZONDY solicited an investment of $200,000 for an issue of stock with INFINITY. The Alabama investor agreed to wire the money after being advised that this transaction might raise additional money to pay what was owed him. The Alabama investor received 24,000 shares of INFINITY stock and a stock certificate signed by DENCER.

11. In January 2008, subsequent to the Alabama investor's purchase of 24,000 shares of INFINITY stock, SZONDY solicited an additional investment of $50,000.00 in INFINITY, in the form of a promissory note. The Alabama investor was induced to purchase the promissory note in order to generate cash flow from INFINITY. The Alabama investor wired $50,000.00 to INFINITY. The Alabama investor received a promissory note stating that the note was due and payable in the amount of $70,000.00 on or before February 27, 2008. The promissory note was signed and executed by DENCER. In March 2008 the Alabama investor attempted to collect the promissory note but it was not honored as promised.

12. The Alabama investor invested a total of $650,000.00 for stock, promissory notes and a Put Contract issued by POLYMER, IMPERIAL and INFINITY. DENCER is listed as the president for all the companies and his signature appears on all issued stock certificates. The Alabama investor reports that he has received no return on his investments or payment for his promissory notes and Put Contract as promised by company officials.

13. A review of the files of the Registration Division of the Alabama Securities Commission was conducted on December 8, 2008 disclosing no record of registration or any perfected exemption for the security issued by POLYMER, IMPERIAL or INFINITY in the state of Alabama.

14. A review of the files of the Registration Division of the Alabama Securities Commission was conducted on December 8, 2008 disclosing no record of registration for POLYMER, IMPERIAL, INFINITY, DENCER, MENSONIDES, SZONDY or BURKHART as
