ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. CO-2009-0011

CONSENT ORDER

The Alabama Securities Commission ("Commission"), having the authority to administer and provide for the enforcement of all provisions of Title 8, Chapter 6, Code of Alabama 1975, the Alabama Securities Act ("Act"), upon due consideration of the subject matter hereof, has determined as follows:

RESPONDENTS

<sup>2</sup> Factual allegations in this Order may apply to Wachovia Securities and/or Wachovia Capital Markets, but do not necessarily refer to both entities.

2. WHEREAS, a multi-state task force conducted and coordinated investigations into Wachovia's marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors during the period of January 1, 2006, through February 14, 2008; and

3. WHEREAS, after a books and records inspection by a multi-state task force on July 17, 2008, Wachovia Securities has cooperated fully with regulators conducting the investigations by responding to inquiries, providing documentary evidence and other materials, and providing regulators with access to information relating to the investigations; and

4. WHEREAS, Wachovia has advised regulators of its agreement to resolve the investigations relating to its marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors; and

5. WHEREAS, Wachovia agrees to, among other things, reimburse certain purchasers of auction rate securities, and to make certain payments at the direction of the Commission; and

6. WHEREAS, Wachovia elects to permanently waive any right to a hearing and appeal under Section 8-6-25 Code of Alabama 1975, with respect to this Consent Order (the "Order");

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

7. Wachovia Securities admits the jurisdiction of Commission and Wachovia Capital Markets consents to the jurisdiction of Commission for purposes of this Order. Neither admits nor denies the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained in this Order, and each consents to the entry of this Order by the Commission.

8. Auction rate securities are long-term debt or equity instruments that include auction preferred shares of closed-end funds, municipal auction rate bonds, and various asset-backed auction rate bonds (collectively referred to herein as "ARS"). While ARS are all long-term instruments, one significant feature of ARS (which historically provided the potential for short-term liquidity) is the interest/dividend reset through auctions that occur in varying increments of between 7 and 42 days. If an auction is successful, investors are able to exit the ARS market on a short-term basis. If, however, an auction "fails," investors are required to hold all or some of their ARS until the next successful auction in order to liquidate their funds. Beginning in February 2008, the ARS market experienced widespread failed auctions.

9. In early March 2008, Alabama investors with accounts at Wachovia Securities' held ARS assets totaling over $167,649,305.00 dollars. These investors were unable to access their ARS funds due to the failed auctions.

Marketing and Sales of ARS to Investors

10. In connection with the sale of ARS, some Alabama investors state variously that they were told by Wachovia Securities and its registered agents that ARS were:

- A. just like cash;
- B. same as cash;
- C. safe as cash;
- D. same as money markets;
- E. safe as money markets;
- F. cash equivalents;
- G. short-term adjustable rate securities;
- H. cash alternatives;
- I. completely safe;
- J. liquid at any time; and/or

K. always liquid at an auction.

11. Although marketed and sold to investors as safe, liquid, cash-like investments, and although the ARS market had, in fact, functioned for more than twenty years with few if any auction failures, ARS are actually long-term instruments subject to a complex auction process that, upon failure, can lead to illiquidity and lower interest rates.

12. Wachovia Securities further fostered the misconception that ARS were cash-like instruments by providing account portfolio summaries to certain of its customers that listed ARS as "cash equivalents". In fact, ARS were not "cash equivalents" and full liquidity was only available at an auction if the auction was successful.

13. Although Wachovia Securities sold ARS as conservative, safe, and liquid investments to its investors until February 2008, Wachovia had information that several auctions had failed in August 2007 and early 2008, before the mass failures in February 2008. During this same period of time, Wachovia failed to inform its customers purchasing ARS after such auctions began to fail that certain auctions would have failed had Wachovia or another broker-dealer not entered support bids in those auctions.

14. Although Wachovia knew, or should have known, of the inherent risks and the recent volatility of the ARS market, only minimal information regarding the ARS market was provided to Wachovia Securities' retail ARS customers.

15. Wachovia and its registered securities agents were, or should have been, aware that the ARS market was suffering from increasing failures and liquidity issues, and they should have disclosed those facts to investors who were purchasing auction rates after such issues arose. Based on these facts, Wachovia engaged in dishonest and unethical practices in the marketing and sale of ARS, in violation of the provisions of Section 8-6-17(b)(4), Code of Alabama 1975, the Alabama Securities Act. Wachovia's practices constitute grounds to revoke their registration.

These practices included, among other things, the following:

A. Wachovia told some ARS investors purchasing ARS after the market disruptions began to occur that:

- i. ARS were cash equivalents;
- ii. ARS were completely safe; and/or
- iii. ARS were liquid at any time.

B. Wachovia was or should have been aware that the market for ARS was becoming illiquid, yet Wachovia Securities continued to market and sell ARS to investors.

Temporary Maximum Rate Waiver on Certain ARS

16. The interest rates on ARS are reset periodically through the auction process. In the event that there is insufficient demand for a particular issue and an auction fails, the interest rate resets to a "maximum rate" or "failure rate" as defined in the offering documents for that particular issue. Typically, this maximum rate would be higher than the prevailing market rates in order to compensate ARS holders who are unable to sell their positions and offer an "incentive" to induce buyers to return to the market although in some cases, particularly for student loan auction rates, the maximum rate might be lower than the prevailing rate.

17. Wachovia Securities engaged in dishonest and unethical practices by not adequately explaining to individual investors who purchased ARS with maximum rate waivers, among other things, the following:

A. that the ARS interest rates could not be reset at a level that would prevent a failed auction absent the maximum rate waiver; and

B. that the high interest rate allowed by the waiver would expire at the end of the waiver period unless extended by the issuer.

Pursuant to 8-6-17(b)(4) Code of Alabama 1975, these practices constitute grounds to revoke Wachovia Securities registration.

Failure To Supervise Agents Who Sold ARS

18. Although ARS are complicated and complex products, Wachovia Securities did not provide its sales or marketing staff with the training and information necessary to adequately explain these products or the mechanics of the auction process to their customers. During the course of investigations, on-the-record statements taken from Wachovia Securities' registered agents demonstrated that these agents lacked a basic understanding of the functionality of the ARS products and the auction rate market.

19. Many of Wachovia Securities' registered agents were not adequately educated in the ARS products they were selling and did not know where to look for information to bolster that knowledge. Wachovia Securities failed to provide timely and comprehensive sales and marketing literature regarding ARS and the mechanics of the auction process. In addition, Wachovia Securities failed to review account portfolio statements sent to its customers to ensure that they reflected accurate information regarding ARS.

20. Wachovia Securities' failure to provide sufficient training and information concerning ARS and the market environment in which they were sold was not limited to one or two agents, and is therefore indicative of Wachovia Securities' failure to ensure that its registered personnel provided adequate information regarding ARS to its customers.

21. Wachovia Securities failed to reasonably supervise its employees, which is grounds for revocation of its registration under Section 8-6-3 (j) (10), Code of Alabama 1975, the Alabama Securities Act,:

A. Failing to provide adequate training to its registered agents regarding ARS by, among other things:

i. Failing to provide timely and comprehensive sales and marketing literature regarding ARS and the mechanics of the auction process;

ii. Failing to provide pertinent information concerning the complexity of the ARS product; and

iii. Failing to ensure that its agents were selling ARS to individual investors for whom they were suitable; and

B. Failing to review account portfolio statements sent to its customers to ensure that they reflected accurate information regarding ARS;

C. Failing to review ARS transactions in accounts of customers who needed liquidity; and

D. Failing to ensure that its registered personnel were providing adequate information regarding ARS to its customers.

II.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

22. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Section 8-6-3, et seq Code of Alabama 1975, the Alabama Securities Act.

23. The Commission finds Wachovia Securities failed to supervise its employees and engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business, and that this conduct constitutes grounds to revoke Wachovia Securities' registration under Section 8-6-3(j)(10) and Section 8-6-17(b)(4), Code of Alabama 1975, the Alabama Securities Act.

24. The Commission finds this order and the following relief appropriate, in the public interest, and consistent with the purposes intended by the Act.

purchases through Wachovia; and

E. Wachovia shall be able to defend itself against such claims; provided, however, that Wachovia shall not contest liability related to the sale of ARS; and provided further that Wachovia shall not be able to use as part of its defense an investor's decision not to borrow money from Wachovia.

38. Wachovia Securities and Wachovia Capital Markets, respectively and separately, certify that on or before November 28, 2008, they have refunded refinancing fees received by it to municipal auction rate issuers that issued such securities in the initial primary market between August 1, 2007 and February 13, 2008, and refinanced those securities through Wachovia after February 13, 2008.

39. If Wachovia defaults in any of its obligations set forth in this Order, the Commission may vacate this Order, at its sole discretion, upon 10 days notice to Wachovia and without opportunity for administrative hearing or may initiate or refer this matter for enforcement as provided in Section 8-6-16, Code of Alabama 1975, of the Alabama Securities Act.
