Winfield Alabama Man Arrested for Alleged Alabama Securities Act Violations

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA (April 6, 2015) Jack Bostick, District Attorney for the 25th Judicial Circuit, Marion County, Alabama; and Joseph Borg, Director of the Alabama Securities Commission (ASC) announced that Timothy Lowell Franks, age 56, a resident of Winfield, AL was arrested April 1, 2015 for alleged violations of the Alabama Securities Act.

Franks' arrest stems from an March, 2015 Marion County, Alabama Grand Jury indictment charging him with 6 counts of alleged violations of the Alabama Securities Act. Charges against Franks include: (1) count of Sale of Unregistered Securities; (1) count of Sale of Securities by an Unregistered Agent; (3) counts of Fraud in Connection with the Sale of Securities (making untrue statements of material fact or omitting to state a material fact; and engaging in an act, practice or course of business which would operate as a fraud or deceit); and (1) count of Theft by Deception, 1st Degree. Securities registration charges are Class C felonies, punishable by a maximum of 10 years' imprisonment and a fine of $15,000 for each count, upon conviction. Securities Fraud and Theft by Deception 1st are Class B felonies, punishable by a maximum of 20 years imprisonment and a $30,000 fine for each count, upon conviction.

According to the indictment, Franks offered and sold securities in a coal mining operation. In connection with the securities transactions, Franks represented that he owned the mine and had the mineral rights necessary to operate the mine. The securities allegedly sold were investment contracts or interests in the mining operation. Franks was released after posting a $15,000 bond. No trial date has been announced.
