MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA (May 10, 2019) Jill Lee, District Attorney for the 18th Judicial Circuit, Shelby County, Alabama, and Joseph Borg, Director of the Alabama Securities Commission (ASC), announced that David Matthew Ranes, of Studio City, California, was arrested on Alabama warrants in Utah on February 27, 2019 by agents with the FBI’s Salt Lake City field office. The warrants were issued when a November 2016 Shelby County Grand Jury returned a ten-count indictment for multiple alleged violations of the Alabama Securities Act. Ranes was held in the Purgatory Correctional Facility in Hurricane, Utah under a $150,000 bond before turning himself over to Alabama authorities on May 7, 2019.

The indictment charges Ranes with seven counts of Fraud in Connection with the Sale of Securities for making untrue statements of, or omitting to state, material facts to an investor; and for engaging in an act, practice, or course of business which operates as a fraud or deceit upon an investor. The securities fraud charges are Class B felonies, carrying a range of punishment of two to 20 years’ imprisonment and a fine of up to $30,000 per charge, upon conviction. Additionally, the indictment charges Ranes with one count of Sale of Securities by an Unregistered Agent, one count of Selling Unregistered Securities, and one count of Conspiracy to Commit Securities Fraud; each of which is a Class C felony, carrying a range of punishment of one year and one day to 10 years’ imprisonment and a fine of up to $15,000, upon conviction.

The indictment alleges that Ranes claimed to be a movie producer and solicited more than $1,265,000 through the sale of investment contracts to Alabama investors. Ranes told investors that the funds would be used for movie production expenses, however records indicate that Ranes used most of the invested funds to pay personal expenses, co-conspirators, and to repay earlier investors. Ranes misrepresented the anticipated production dates of the films being funded and the date the investments would mature. Ranes further misrepresented to investors that large sums of additional funding had been committed, when in fact no such funding was secured. Ranes omitted to tell some Alabama investors that a prior investor was claiming ownership of the movie rights because Ranes was in default on a prior loan. Ranes also omitted to tell the investors that he had been trying unsuccessfully for years to produce the films for which the investments were made, and that his prior film production company was, at the time of investment, a debtor party in an involuntary bankruptcy. Neither Ranes, nor the investments he offered and sold to Alabama investors, were registered with the ASC, as required by the Alabama Securities Act. A trial date has not been scheduled.
