18. On April 19, 2007, the Commission staff issued a Cease and Desist Order against AMERICAN HERITAGE, THOMPSON, HICKS, BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON, GREER and REMLEY for effecting transactions in securities in the state of Alabama that were not registered or exempt from registration and without benefit of agent registration.

19. During the Commission's investigation, AMERICAN HERITAGE responded with the following statement: "The majority of the transactions at issue occurred under the direct supervision and control of John Greer, American Heritage's former Chief Compliance Officer, former Operations Manager, and former Vice President, and most of the sales at issue were by T. Marshall Collins, American Heritage's former National Sales Manager and former Registered principal, both of whom knew or should have known that various American Heritage employees failed to possess or obtain the necessary licenses to conduct transactions with Alabama customers. Following the termination of their employment, American Heritage brought a lawsuit and an AAA arbitration proceeding against Messrs. Greer and Collins, as well as other individuals and entities, for various damages caused to American Heritage as a result of those Defendants'/Respondents' various intentional actions and omissions, which were (along with an NASD arbitration proceeding brought by Mr. Greer) ultimately resolved by agreement, to American Heritage's satisfaction, during the Summer of 2006. American Heritage regrets that the foregoing has occurred, and has taken, and will continue to take steps to prevent such unauthorized or improper actions from taking place in the future."

20. During the Commission's investigation, GREER gave testimony that THOMPSON said AMERICAN HERITAGE was not going to register persons in states where they were not doing business physically and in person. GREER further stated that THOMPSON said state regulators really did not care about a few church bonds being sold without registration. GREER heard this from Thompson from the very beginning of his employment with AMERICAN HERITAGE.

21. During the Commission's investigation, COLLINS gave testimony that he asked THOMPSON about state registration on numerous occasions, and THOMPSON consistently stated that AMERICAN HERITAGE was such a small company that COLLINS did not need to be concerned about registration.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

22. Section 8-6-2(10), Code of Alabama 1975, includes a bond or any evidence of indebtedness in the definition of a security. The bonds of the Issuers are securities under the Act.

23. Pursuant to Section 8-6-3(a), Code of Alabama, 1975, it is unlawful for a person to transact business in this state as a dealer or agent for securities unless such person is registered under the Act. During all times relevant to the transactions referenced in this order, BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON, and REMLEY were not registered as broker-dealer agents, investment advisors, or investment advisor representatives in the state of Alabama. BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON, and REMLEY unlawfully effected transactions in securities while not registered under the Act.

24. Pursuant to Section 8-6-3(j)(10), Code of Alabama, 1975, the Commission may by order deny, suspend or revoke any registration, or censor or bar any applicant or registrant when he has failed to reasonably supervise his agents or employees if he is a dealer. According to AMERICAN HERITAGE, GREER was responsible for overseeing all compliance operations for AMERICAN HERITAGE, as well as supervising all of the company's registered representatives from 1999 to 2002. From 2002 through 2004, GREER served as Vice President of Operations and Chief Compliance Officer of AMERICAN HERITAGE. He was directly responsible for overseeing all functions of the specialized church bond broker-dealers, except for day-to-day financial operations. GREER failed to reasonably supervise his agents by allowing COLLINS, DAVIDSON, and REMLEY to offer or sell a security in the state of Alabama that is not registered or that has not perfected an exemption from registration pursuant to Section 8-6-4 and to effect multiple securities transactions in the state of Alabama without benefit of registration as broker-dealer agents.

25. Pursuant to Section 8-6-3(j)(10), Code of Alabama, 1975, the Commission may by order deny, suspend or revoke any registration, or censor or bar any applicant or registrant or any officer, director, partner, or person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions if the Commission finds that the Order is in the public interest and the applicant or registrant has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provisions of this article, or a predecessor act, or any rule or order under this article or a predecessor act. THOMPSON, as owner of AMERICAN HERITAGE, and HICKS, as CEO of AMERICAN HERITAGE, knowingly allowed BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON and REMLEY to offer or sell a security in the state of Alabama that is not registered or that has not perfected an exemption from registration pursuant to Section 8-6-4. THOMPSON and HICKS also knowingly allowed BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON, and REMLEY to effect multiple securities transactions in the state of Alabama without benefit of registration as broker-dealer agents pursuant to 8-6-3(a).

26. Pursuant to Section 8-6-4, Code of Alabama 1975, it is unlawful to offer or sell any security unless it is registered under the Act, the security is exempt from registration pursuant to Section 8-6-10 or the transaction is exempt under Section 8-6-11.

The securities offered and sold by AMERICAN HERITAGE, BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON, and REMLEY, to wit: the church bonds of the Issuers, were not registered in the state of Alabama. AMERICAN HERITAGE, BEASINGER, COLLINS, DAVIDSON, and REMLEY unlawfully offered and sold securities of the Issuers which were neither registered nor the subject of any perfected exemption.

WHEREAS, DAVIDSON admits that without benefit of his registration as a broker-dealer agent in Alabama, he sold a security that was neither registered nor had perfected an exemption from registration in the state of Alabama, and

WHEREAS, this Order is appropriate in the public interest for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes of the Alabama Securities Act, and

WHEREAS, the Commission, and DAVIDSON are desirous of settling this matter as hereafter set forth and agree to the entry of this Order,

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. That RESPONDENT DAVIDSON ensure that he follow proper procedures to preclude any future non-compliance with the Act.

2. That in accordance with Section 8-6-19(j)(1), Code of Alabama, 1975, DAVIDSON shall pay to the State of Alabama an administrative assessment of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), said funds to be tendered in certified funds contemporaneously with the entry of this Order.

3. That the entry of this Order will resolve Cease and Desist Order CD-2007-0011 only as it pertains to RESPONDENT DAVIDSON.
