Alabama Securities Commission Welcomes New Commissioner and Recognizes Contributions of Former Member

MONTGOMERY ALABAMA (August 19, 2013) Joseph P. Borg, Director, Alabama Securities Commission (ASC) announces the return of former Commissioner Hon. S. Dagnal Rowe, who received Governor Bentley's Letter of Appointment on August 19th to replace Commissioner Andrew P. Campbell whose term had expired.

“ASC Commissioners have always been professionals with proven track records in their areas of expertise; but Commissioner Rowe has additionally distinguished himself with a successful tenure as a Commissioner from 2008 to 2012. The ASC Commissioners bring energy and talent to the table that will keep the Commission on its continued path as an agency nationally respected for its success in regulation of the securities industry in the state of Alabama,” said Borg.

Hon. S. Dagnal Rowe, Attorney at Law, was recommended by his professional peers at the Alabama Bar Association. Appointed by Governor Robert Bentley, he is subject to confirmation by the Alabama Senate at its next Legislative session and will serve a 4 year term.

Rowe is a partner with Wilmer & Lee Law Firm in Huntsville, Alabama where he has practiced law for more than 40 years, specializing in corporate, business and banking law, bankruptcy law, trust, and estate law. Previously having been appointed by Governor Riley, Commissioner Rowe's experience and knowledge helped continue the ASC's stature as one of the nation's leading securities regulatory agencies with its mission to protect the citizens of Alabama and promote capital formation in the State.

Hon. Andrew P. Campbell, Attorney at Law, faithfully served his term as an ASC Commissioner from May 2008 until August 2013. Mr. Campbell is a senior litigation partner with Leitman, Siegal, Payne & Campbell, LLC. Borg stated, "Mr. Campbell always looked out for Alabama's "main street" investors and charged the Commission staff to protect our citizens from fraud and financial abuse. We thank Mr. Campbell for his years of service to the people of Alabama."
