Joseph Borg Joins National White Collar Crime Center
As Non-Regional Board Director

Fairmont, WV On October 15, 2012 the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) Board of Directors elected Joseph Borg, Director of the Alabama Securities Commission (ASC), as a Non-Regional Director on the Board. Since becoming Director of the Alabama Securities Commission in 1994, Borg has gained national prominence in closing down microcap stock brokerage firms and criminally prosecuting investment crooks. Due to his successful record of prosecuting financial crimes, he has been described in Forbes as "Wall Street's Worst Nightmare."

"With Joseph Borg's professional experience and knowledge, I know he will assist us in continuing to be a leader in our field. I proudly welcome him as a Non-Regional Board Director," stated NW3C Board Chairman, West Virginia State Auditor Glen Gainer.

NW3C has offices in Fairmont, WV and Glen Allen, VA and supports state, local and tribal law enforcement nationwide in the prevention, prosecution and investigation of high tech and economic crime. NW3C's Board of Directors consists of a Chairman, three Non-Regional Board Directors, and one Board Director and one Board Alternate representing each of NW3C's eight membership regions.
