Alabama Securities Commission Issues Order Against Company for Alleged Unregistered Stock Sales in Wake of Gulf Oil Spill

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA (July 9, 2010) Alabama Securities Commission (ASC) Director, Joseph Borg, said today that the agency has issued a Cease and Desist Order to InfrAegis, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and three of the company's officers, related to alleged violations of the Alabama Securities Act. The alleged violations pertain to InfrAegis' offer and sale of company stock shares to several Alabama investors. The Order demands that the company and its representatives immediately cease and desist from further offers or sales of any security into, within or from the State of Alabama.

According to the ASC Order, InfrAegis, headquartered in Elk Grove Village, Illinois has as its stated business purpose the provision of integrated technology products for infrastructure and national security applications. Gregory E. Webb, president and CEO of the company, was in Orange Beach, Alabama in June to promote a product offered by InfrAegis that, when applied in large amounts, purportedly would help alleviate environmental damages caused by the Gulf oil spill.

Webb, together with C. Robert Abbott, InfrAegis Chief Product Officer; and, James R. Zilka, InfrAegis' Chief Financial Officer, were named in the Order as not being registered with the ASC to conduct securities business in Alabama and that the company's stock shares are not registered or determined to be exempt from registration with the ASC as required by law. Further investigation by the ASC's Enforcement Division revealed that the State of Illinois had previously issued an administrative order against InfrAegis, Inc., alleging similar securities law violations in that state.

Webb, Abbott and Zilka have 28 days to respond after receipt of the Order or face possible legal sanctions as allowed under the Alabama Securities Act.

The ASC cautions potential investors to thoroughly scrutinize and research any investment opportunity or offer. Contact the ASC with inquiries concerning securities broker-dealers, agents, investment advisers, investment adviser representatives, financial planners, registration status of securities or debt management programs, to report suspected fraud or to obtain consumer information. The ASC provides free investor education and fraud prevention materials in print, on our website and through educational presentations upon request.
