Alabama Securities Commission Director Borg receives a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Alabama Senior Citizens Hall of Fame

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA (August 9, 2018) The Alabama Securities Commission (ASC) announced today that Director Joseph P. Borg received the “Lifetime Achievement Award” from the Alabama Senior Citizens Hall of Fame. The Alabama Senior Citizens Hall of Fame was created by the Alabama Legislature on July 28, 1983. On May 16, 2008 the Hall of Fame became a part of the Alabama Department of Senior Services.

The Honorable Jerry Fielding, Chairman of the Alabama Senior Citizen Hall of Fame and Honorable Todd Cotton, Acting Commissioner of Alabama Department of Senior Services, welcomed guests to the 36th Awards Ceremony for the Alabama Senior Citizens Hall of Fame. They congratulated the Hall of Fame Class of 2018 on their inductions as permanent members to the Hall of Fame. They also offered congratulations to the recipients of the Lifetime Achievement Commendation and Special awards. These awards honor their incredible ongoing commitments to serving our communities.

The nomination committee recognized Director Borg with this Lifetime Achievement Award for leading the ASC to a continued record of success in the areas of legislation, information initiatives and successful prosecutions supporting the wellbeing of senior citizens in Alabama. As a member of North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA), he led or participated in study groups on such issues as the effect of diminished capacity on sound financial decisions. Borg has testified before the U.S. Senate Committee on Aging in support of senior initiatives and has drafted legislation to mandate reporting of financial exploitation of senior Alabamians and successfully drafted enhanced penalties for those who defraud seniors. Borg, since his arrival in 1994, has consistently led ASC to become one of the nation’s highest regarded securities regulatory agencies with the protection of senior Alabamians as a priority. Director Borg was nominated by Ms. Liane Kelly, the Executive Director of the Alabama Retired State Employees’ Association (ARSEA).
