Alabama Securities Commission Welcomes New Commissioners and Recognizes Contributions of Former Members

MONTGOMERY ALABAMA (September 24, 2012) Joseph P. Borg, Director, Alabama Securities Commission (ASC) introduced two new Commissioners at the first quarterly meeting of the new fiscal year 2013. “Our Commissioners have always been professionals with proven track records in their areas of expertise. The new Commissioners bring energy and talent to the table that will keep the ASC on its continued path as an agency nationally renowned for its success regulating the securities industry in the state of Alabama,” said Borg.

The new Commissioners were appointed in accordance with the Alabama Securities Act, Chapter 830-X-1 (listed in alphabetical order):

Hon. Commissioner Marlene M. McCain was recommended by her professional peers from the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants. Appointed by Governor Robert Bentley, she was confirmed by the Alabama Senate and will serve a four year term.

McCain has been with Warren Averett, LLC in Birmingham for eight years and is a member and Director of the Warren, Averett, Kimbrough & Marino Division of the firm. She has more than 22 years of public accounting experience serving public and private companies, and specializing in the financial services, healthcare, technology and nonprofit industries. She also has nine years of industry experience, having previously worked for two large Birmingham-based companies. McCain is Past Chair of the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants (ASCPA, 2008-2009) and has served as an ASCPA Council Member and past president of the Birmingham Chapter of ASCPA.

Hon. Commissioner Everette A. Price, Jr., Attorney at Law, was recommended by his professional peers from the Alabama Bar Association. Appointed by Governor Robert Bentley, he was confirmed by the Alabama Senate and will serve a four-year term.

Everette A. Price, Jr. has been practicing law for 47 years primarily as a sole proprietor with 6 years as Public Defender and considerable litigation experience during that time. He is a native of Evergreen Alabama and moved to Brewton, Alabama in 1969. He graduated from Auburn University with a BS in Pre-law and from the University of Alabama Law School. He was recognized by Super Lawyer, a rating service of outstanding lawyers, in 2009 and 2010 and is rated by Martindale Hubbell as PRR BV Distinguished Attorney 2011 and 2012. He was Bar Commissioner for 2 terms and on a Disciplinary Panel during those terms. He is a certified Mediator on the State Bar registry, a member of the American Bar, has served as President of ALCDA and the local Bars. He is presently a member of the Bench & Bar and also History & Archives committee. He is married to Donna Price; they reside in Brewton, Alabama and have 4 adult children & 5 grandchildren.

The following Commissioners have completed their terms of office at the Commission. “Their significant contributions and leadership contributed to ASC’s continuing track record of success and national and international recognition,” said Director Borg.
